3D Printing Insurance

Manufacturing & products - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

3D printing shops face products, intellectual property and fire exposures, and carriers want to know what you print, what it is used for and who designs it.

WHAT'S COVERED

Products liability
Claims from printed parts that fail.

Equipment
Printers, scanners and post-processing tools.

Intellectual property
Claims that a printed design infringes a patent.

Errors and omissions
Financial loss from design or print errors.

Cyber liability
Breach of customer design files.

Good to know
Parts printed for medical, aircraft or firearm uses are hard to place, so disclose end uses clearly.

LIMITATIONS & EXCLUSIONS

Typically not covered for this product:

- × Firearms and firearm parts
- × Medical implants and intellectual property infringement on most standard policies

All policies:

- Each coverage carries its own limits, deductibles or retentions and sublimits, which vary by insurer.
- Only the operations, locations, vehicles and exposures described in your application and policy are covered.
- Prior or known incidents, intentional acts and contractual obligations beyond the policy terms are generally excluded.
- Some coverages (for example professional or management liability) are written on a claims-made basis and must be reported during the policy period.

Important information: This brochure is a general summary provided for informational purposes only. It is not an insurance policy, contract, binder or offer of coverage. Actual coverages, limits, deductibles, exclusions and conditions are set solely by the policy issued by the insurance company and may differ from the descriptions in this brochure; if there is any difference, the policy language governs. All coverage is subject to underwriting approval. Coverage is not in force and is not bound until you receive a written confirmation of coverage (binder or confirmation receipt) from Societies Insurance or the issuing insurance company. Requesting a quote or submitting an application does not bind coverage. Products, coverages and discounts vary by insurer and are not available in all states. Societies Insurance is an independent insurance agency, Agency NPN 16247324 (in California: DBA Cavlogix Insurance Agency).
