Contingent Business Interruption Insurance

Property & inland marine - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Contingent business interruption pays your lost income when a key supplier, customer or anchor store suffers a covered loss, and carriers want to know who you depend on.

WHAT'S COVERED

Key suppliers
Loss when a supplier cannot deliver.

Key customers
Loss when a major customer shuts down.

Anchor locations
Loss when a nearby anchor store closes.

Lost income
Profit lost during the shutdown.

Extra expense
Costs to find other suppliers.

Good to know
Naming specific dependent properties gets better terms than unnamed coverage, and backup suppliers lower the exposure.

LIMITATIONS & EXCLUSIONS

Typically not covered for this product:

- × Losses from perils not covered on your own policy
- × Such as flood or earthquake
- × Supplier financial failure

All policies:

- Each coverage carries its own limits, deductibles or retentions and sublimits, which vary by insurer.
- Only the operations, locations, vehicles and exposures described in your application and policy are covered.
- Prior or known incidents, intentional acts and contractual obligations beyond the policy terms are generally excluded.
- Some coverages (for example professional or management liability) are written on a claims-made basis and must be reported during the policy period.

Important information: This brochure is a general summary provided for informational purposes only. It is not an insurance policy, contract, binder or offer of coverage. Actual coverages, limits, deductibles, exclusions and conditions are set solely by the policy issued by the insurance company and may differ from the descriptions in this brochure; if there is any difference, the policy language governs. All coverage is subject to underwriting approval. Coverage is not in force and is not bound until you receive a written confirmation of coverage (binder or confirmation receipt) from Societies Insurance or the issuing insurance company. Requesting a quote or submitting an application does not bind coverage. Products, coverages and discounts vary by insurer and are not available in all states. Societies Insurance is an independent insurance agency, Agency NPN 16247324 (in California: DBA Cavlogix Insurance Agency).
