Crane & Rigging Insurance

Contractors & construction - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Crane and rigging contractors face catastrophic load-drop and collapse claims, so carriers focus on crane capacity, operator certification and lift planning.

WHAT'S COVERED

General liability
Bodily injury and property damage to others from your work.

Rigging liability
Damage to the customer's load while it is lifted.

Contractors equipment
Cranes, booms and rigging gear.

Workers compensation
Medical bills and lost wages when your crew gets hurt.

Umbrella / excess
High limits that crane jobs usually require.

Good to know
Bare rentals and operated rentals are rated differently, and NCCCO-certified operators with written lift plans are expected by most markets.

LIMITATIONS & EXCLUSIONS

Typically not covered for this product:

- × Damage to property being lifted unless you buy riggers liability
- × Boom overload or upset on some equipment forms

All policies:

- Each coverage carries its own limits, deductibles or retentions and sublimits, which vary by insurer.
- Only the operations, locations, vehicles and exposures described in your application and policy are covered.
- Prior or known incidents, intentional acts and contractual obligations beyond the policy terms are generally excluded.
- Some coverages (for example professional or management liability) are written on a claims-made basis and must be reported during the policy period.

HAVE THESE READY

Important information: This brochure is a general summary provided for informational purposes only. It is not an insurance policy, contract, binder or offer of coverage. Actual coverages, limits, deductibles, exclusions and conditions are set solely by the policy issued by the insurance company and may differ from the descriptions in this brochure; if there is any difference, the policy language governs. All coverage is subject to underwriting approval. Coverage is not in force and is not bound until you receive a written confirmation of coverage (binder or confirmation receipt) from Societies Insurance or the issuing insurance company. Requesting a quote or submitting an application does not bind coverage. Products, coverages and discounts vary by insurer and are not available in all states. Societies Insurance is an independent insurance agency, Agency NPN 16247324 (in California: DBA Cavlogix Insurance Agency).
