Electronics Assembly Insurance

Manufacturing & products - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Electronics assemblers face product failure and fire claims, and carriers look at what the boards go into, testing procedures and lithium battery work.

WHAT'S COVERED

Products liability
Claims when a board or device fails or overheats.

Property and stock
Components, boards and finished goods.

Equipment
Pick-and-place lines, reflow ovens and testers.

Customer property
Customer-supplied parts in your care.

Errors and omissions
Financial loss from design or assembly errors.

Good to know
UL or IPC certification and documented functional testing on every unit help a lot, especially for medical or aircraft customers.

LIMITATIONS & EXCLUSIONS

Typically not covered for this product:

- × Aircraft and medical uses unless disclosed
- × Many carriers limit products with lithium batteries

All policies:

- Each coverage carries its own limits, deductibles or retentions and sublimits, which vary by insurer.
- Only the operations, locations, vehicles and exposures described in your application and policy are covered.
- Prior or known incidents, intentional acts and contractual obligations beyond the policy terms are generally excluded.
- Some coverages (for example professional or management liability) are written on a claims-made basis and must be reported during the policy period.

Important information: This brochure is a general summary provided for informational purposes only. It is not an insurance policy, contract, binder or offer of coverage. Actual coverages, limits, deductibles, exclusions and conditions are set solely by the policy issued by the insurance company and may differ from the descriptions in this brochure; if there is any difference, the policy language governs. All coverage is subject to underwriting approval. Coverage is not in force and is not bound until you receive a written confirmation of coverage (binder or confirmation receipt) from Societies Insurance or the issuing insurance company. Requesting a quote or submitting an application does not bind coverage. Products, coverages and discounts vary by insurer and are not available in all states. Societies Insurance is an independent insurance agency, Agency NPN 16247324 (in California: DBA Cavlogix Insurance Agency).
