Martial Arts Studio Insurance

Events, recreation & entertainment - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Martial arts is contact training, so carriers look closely at the styles taught, sparring rules, protective gear and how many students are minors.

WHAT'S COVERED

General liability
Injuries to visitors and parents on your premises.

Participant liability
Student injuries during classes and sparring.

Abuse and molestation
Usually required when you teach children.

Instructor liability
Claims of improper instruction or supervision.

Studio contents
Mats, bags, gear and improvements.

Good to know
Full-contact sparring, MMA fight training and sanctioned competitions are rated separately – schools that teach only light-contact or forms find more carriers.

LIMITATIONS & EXCLUSIONS

Typically not covered for this product:

- × Professional or amateur bouts you promote
- × Weapons training with live blades
- × Injuries at off-site tournaments on many policies

All policies:

- Each coverage carries its own limits, deductibles or retentions and sublimits, which vary by insurer.
- Only the operations, locations, vehicles and exposures described in your application and policy are covered.
- Prior or known incidents, intentional acts and contractual obligations beyond the policy terms are generally excluded.
- Some coverages (for example professional or management liability) are written on a claims-made basis and must be reported during the policy period.

Important information: This brochure is a general summary provided for informational purposes only. It is not an insurance policy, contract, binder or offer of coverage. Actual coverages, limits, deductibles, exclusions and conditions are set solely by the policy issued by the insurance company and may differ from the descriptions in this brochure; if there is any difference, the policy language governs. All coverage is subject to underwriting approval. Coverage is not in force and is not bound until you receive a written confirmation of coverage (binder or confirmation receipt) from Societies Insurance or the issuing insurance company. Requesting a quote or submitting an application does not bind coverage. Products, coverages and discounts vary by insurer and are not available in all states. Societies Insurance is an independent insurance agency, Agency NPN 16247324 (in California: DBA Cavlogix Insurance Agency).
