Notary Public Insurance

Professional liability (E&O) - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Notary E&O protects you when a signature you notarized is later disputed, and carriers look at the documents you notarize and whether you work as a loan signing agent.

WHAT'S COVERED

Professional liability
Claims that your advice, work or omission caused a client a financial loss.

Defense costs
Attorney fees and court costs, even when the claim has no merit.

Notary bond
The state-required bond that protects the public.

Signing agent coverage
Errors during loan document signings.

Remote notarization
Online notarizations where your state allows them.

Good to know
The state bond protects the public, not you, so E&O is what pays your defense; most loan signing companies require at least $25,000.
