Roofing Insurance

Contractors & construction - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Roofing is one of the hardest trades to insure, and most carriers want to know your pitch limits, hot work and fall protection.

WHAT'S COVERED

General liability
Bodily injury and property damage to others from your work.

Completed operations
Leaks and damage that show up after the job is done.

Tools and equipment
Ladders, nail guns and kettles on the job.

Workers compensation
Injuries to your crew, including falls.

Commercial auto
Trucks, vans and trailers used to get to jobs.

Good to know
A written fall-protection plan and no hot-tar work open more carriers and better rates.

WHY SOCIETIES INSURANCE

LIMITATIONS & EXCLUSIONS

Typically not covered for this product:

× Your own faulty workmanship and water damage from roofs left open overnight on many policies.

All policies:

- Each coverage carries its own limits, deductibles or retentions and sublimits, which vary by insurer.
- Only the operations, locations, vehicles and exposures described in your application and policy are covered.
- Prior or known incidents, intentional acts and contractual obligations beyond the policy terms are generally excluded.
- Some coverages (for example professional or management liability) are written on a claims-made basis and must be reported during the policy period.

HAVE THESE READY

- Revenue split residential vs. commercial
- Maximum roof pitch and stories
- Subcontractor certificates
- Five years of loss runs

Important information: This brochure is a general summary provided for informational purposes only. It is not an insurance policy, contract, binder or offer of coverage. Actual coverages, limits, deductibles, exclusions and conditions are set solely by the policy issued by the insurance company and may differ from the descriptions in this brochure; if there is any difference, the policy language governs. All coverage is subject to underwriting approval. Coverage is not in force and is not bound until you receive a written confirmation of coverage (binder or confirmation receipt) from Societies Insurance or the issuing insurance company. Requesting a quote or submitting an application does not bind coverage. Products, coverages and discounts vary by insurer and are not available in all states. Societies Insurance is an independent insurance agency, Agency NPN 16247324 (in California: DBA Cavlogix Insurance Agency).
