Window Washing Insurance

Specialty trades & services - coverage overview, limitations and how to get a quote

OVERVIEW

Window cleaning is priced by height, so carriers ask how high you work, whether you use ropes, swing stages or lifts, and how your crews are trained.

WHAT'S COVERED

General liability
Bodily injury and property damage to others from your work.

Falls and height work
Workers comp and liability for ladder, lift and rope access.

Broken glass and property
Glass, screens and frames damaged while cleaning.

Workers compensation
Medical bills and lost wages when a crew member is hurt.

Tools and equipment
Poles, water-fed systems, ladders and lifts.

Good to know
Staying at three stories or below, or using water-fed poles instead of ladders, opens far more carriers than high-rise rope work.
